DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Obora et al. ("Nonsuture Microvascular Anastomosis Using Magnet Rings," Neurol Med Chir, vol. 20, 1980, pp.497-505). Obora et al. disclose, in figure 1, a method using magnetism for forming an anastomosis between first and second hollow bodies (vessels) with lumens, where the method includes positioning a first securing component (magnetic ring) adjacent the opening in the first hollow body, positioning a second securing component (another magnet ring or spurs) adjacent the opening in the second hollow body, and using magnetic force to form an anastomosis between the first and second hollow bodies.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Art Unit: 3731

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 46-71 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 4, 6-13, and 15-17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,352,543. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they claim a method for forming an anastomosis between first and second vessels using magnetic force.
